ABOUT ME

Abednico Wadingalo is a singer, songwriter and recording artist whose music blends Contemporary Gospel, Afro-Jazz, Praise and Worship. Born February 16, 1994 and based in Molepolole, his sound is rooted in faith, joy and the transformative power of salvation. A self-taught musician and director of Abed Live, he approaches his craft with a deep sense of purpose, infusing his performances with an uplifting energy that resonates with audiences.

Beyond music, Abed is a Real Estate Surveyor with a focus on Sustainable Development, embodying a balance between profession and passion. His work extends to vocal training through Transformative Drive (2020), event management with Open Sky Gathering (2022-present) and the Abed Live Moments podcast series. His belief — "With God, it can only get better" — fuels his creative and spiritual mission.

A three-time Botswana Gospel Awards nominee and two-time winner (Best Contemporary Gospel and Best Songwriter), Abednico has released Phatsima (2017), O Tsholofelo Live DVD (2018), As You Will (2019) and with Kgosi Jeso (Live) (2025) as his latest offering. His live performances in Shout Praise Music Concert, We Praise Music Show and Contagious Youth Week Festival, showcase his dynamic stage presence. Whether as a worship leader or event planner, Abed's artistry is a testament to living a life of service and celebration.
